

I was going to buy you
flowers for Valentine's Day.

Then I thought, no,
donuts would be better.
They were.
Try not to think about it

Happy Valentine's Day

If God had a refrigerator, your picture would be on it.

*If He had a wallet,
your photo would be in it.*

*He sends you
flowers every spring,
and a sunrise every morning.*

Whenever you want to talk, He'll listen.

*He could live anywhere in the universe, and He chose your heart.
What about the Christmas gift He sent you in Bethlehem;
not to mention that Friday at Calvary.*

Face it, He's crazy about you.

"Valentine's Day" can be fun. It can be an opportunity to reach out and make a contact that could become a friend or a relationship. It can be an excuse to express yourself to someone special.

The Bible is full of "Valentine" stories - Isaac and Rebekah in Genesis 24 and 26; Jacob worked fourteen years for Rachel's smile in Genesis 29; and Song of Solomon is "hot stuff."

But the ultimate love story is in John 3:16 - "God so loved the world (that includes you) that he gave his one and only Son (Jesus), that whoever (you) believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." Now there's a love story.

Someone PRAYED for YOU and mentioned YOUR NAME before GOD'S THRONE.
God bless and watch over you today.
